

Penny Behling owns Dynamic Dragon Boat Racing LLC, which produces and manages dragon boat festivals, with a charity focus. A six-year dragon boat event veteran with a background in media and non-profit communications, she organizes several festivals from start to finish – from securing sponsorship, to promotion, to race day management, coaching, and logistics, as well as equipment and service provider for various dragon boat events around the country. Her company hosted the 2010 U.S. Dragon Boat Club Crew National Championships in conjunction with the Chattanooga Dragon Boat Festival, featuring 85 teams. Festivals produced by Dynamic have netted more than $1 million for charity.

Penny serves on the United States Dragon Boat Federation board of directors. For her contributions to the community, she received the 2010 Young Alumnus of the Year award from her alma mater, Lincoln Memorial University. She is the 2011 SCORE Business Client of the Year, Knoxville Chapter and inaugural President of the Southeastern Regional Dragon Boat Association.
